

SENIOR DIVISION ORDER ANALYST

In-house Sr. Division Order Analyst position with an incredibly successful and stable operator based in downtown Houston.

This is a fantastic opportunity with a naturally organic and stable company that values and respects its employees! They offer a focused and rewarding company atmosphere, as proven by their incredibly low turnover!

Will have full division order responsibility for a geographic area. Responsibilities include the creation, and maintenance of record and equitable title ownership of producing properties, a multi-disciplinary approach to projects and the resolution of problems, and the ability to work independently and as a mentor/team lead.

Requirements:

- College degree in related field with a minimum a minimum of 8 years in-house operator Division Order Analyst experience; 10 or more years experience required with no college degree.
- Some experience as a team leader or supervisor preferred. Ability and willingness to provide mentoring and training to lower level analysts and techs required.
- Excellent attention to detail; accuracy highly important.

If you are interested and possess the qualifications, please forward your resume immediately. Your information is CONFIDENTIAL. We will not share it with anyone without your permission.
